PREFACE

The present edition of the Canadian Parliamentary Guide is one of the most important issued since the publication of the first of the series of volumes of this class.

Since the 1920 edition went to press the Thirteenth Parliament of Canada has been dissolved, and the general election which followed resulted in the defeat of the Union, or "National Liberal and Conservative," administration of the Right Honourable Arthur Meighen, and the installation in office of a Liberal Government under the Premiership of the Honourable (since created Right Honourable) William Lyon Mackenzie King, C.M.G.

One result of the Federal General Election is the introduction of no less than one hundred and thirty-six new biographical sketches into the House of Commons section of the Canadian Parliamentary Guide, while the Provincial General Elections in Alberta and Saskatchewan, held while the 1921 issue was in the press, account for the appearance in the following pages of sixty-nine additional new biographical sketches. Including the sketches of newly appointed Senators and officials and of provincial legislators returned at by-elections, there are about two hundred and fifty new biographies in this number of the Parliamentary Guide—which is probably a record.

As usual, every precaution has been taken to secure completeness and accuracy in the important biographical sections of this volume. A sketch of every Canadian Parliamentarian at present a Member of the Senate, the House of Commons, the Legislative Councils of Quebec and Nova Scotia and the various Legislative Assemblies is given; but it is regretted that in a few cases these sketches are very brief and incomplete, this being due to the failure of the gentlemen concerned to comply with the urgent requests for data upon which to base comprehensive biographical sketches.

As I have explained in previous volumes, the biographical sketches which appear in the Canadian Parliamentary Guide are intended to be simple and condensed statements of fact, not published for the gratification of the subjects themselves, but compiled primarily for the benefit of public men, public officers, publicists, and others interested in public affairs and in the men administrating them. To all of these the information contained in "The Parliamentary Guide" is of great importance and valuable, if it is correct. But accuracy cannot be secured without the assistance and co-operation of each public man who is the subject of a sketch in these pages, and the undersigned will not assume the responsibility of publishing information respecting the public men and women of Canada not received directly from them.

In this connection I might state that the invariably prompt and kindly response to requests submitted to the most eminent and most busy men in the public life of Canada for the revision of data for the Canadian Parliamentary Guide has always afforded inspiration and encouragement in what is an exacting and onerous task.

This volume will be found to contain a complete alphabetical list (with correct addresses) of the members of the newly elected House of Commons. The complete official returns for the federal general election, as also for the general provincial elections in Alberta and Saskatchewan, are given, as well as detailed returns of all by-elections which have taken place for the House of Commons and for the various Provincial Legislatures since the publication of the 1921 edition.

Great care has been taken in making a thorough revision of the important section containing the election records of every federal electoral division in the Dominion since Confederation, and the undersigned believes it to be quite accurate; but he would take it as a personal favour if any one noticing errors in these lists, or in fact in any part of this volume, would draw his attention to them.

Once more I find imposed upon me the pleasant duty of expressing my grateful acknowledgment of the cordial and invaluable assistance received in the compilation of matter for this volume from the various Federal and Provincial officials throughout the Dominion who have been applied to for assistance in preparing the manuscript for this volume.

PARLIAMENT OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

The King, as sovereign, exercises all powers of executive government through a cabinet composed of certain sworn privy councillors, who act as advisers of the Crown, and conduct the public administration in accordance with law and constitutional usage. The Crown is hereditary, but subject to such limitations as may be imposed by Parliament—i.e., by the Crown, the Lords and the Commons.

The Cabinet, or Committee of Ministers, in whom the executive government of Great Britain and Ireland is practically, though not nominally, vested, is selected with the approval of the Crown, by a Premier or First Minister, who is the choice of the Crown, the existence of the Cabinet, the members of which belong to His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, being dependent upon the possession of the confidence of a majority in the House of Commons, the popular branch of Parliament.

The Parliament of the United Kingdom is composed of the Crown, the Lords, and the Commons, this division into three branches dating from the middle of the fourteenth century. The House of Lords, the Magnum Concilium of ancient days, consists of archbishops, bishops and peers, the latter divided into dukes, marquesses, earls, viscounts and barons. Three princes of the Royal blood have also seats in the house. No peer can take his seat if he be under age, of unsound mind, or bankrupt. Scotland is represented by 16 peers, elected for each Parliament and Ireland by 28 representative peers elected for life. The Speaker is the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, who is a member of the Cabinet, and retires with a change of government. The House of Lords has co-ordinate powers of legislation with the House of Commons, except as respects taxation or money bills. It cannot initiate or amend such bills, but it may reject them, as a whole. The maximum duration of the British Parliament is five years.

The House of Commons is the body where the chief political power rests. It consists of 707 elected members. The Parliament (1st King George V) which was elected in January, 1910. was dissolved Nov. 28, 1910.

The House of Commons then was composed as follows:—Liberals, 274; Labour and Socialist, 40; Nationalists, 82; Unionists, 274; Gov. maj. 122. The 2nd Parlt. Geo. V. as elected December, 1910, was composed after the general election as follows:—Ministerial—England 226; Wales, 27; Scotland, 61; Ireland, 84; Total, 398. Opposition—England, 239; Wales, 3; Scotland, 11; Ireland, 19; Total, 272.

On account of the war the term of the second parliament of Geo. V was extended.

At the time of dissolution, the parties were represented as follows:—Unionists, 282; Liberals, 260; Labor representatives, 38; Irish Nationalists, 78; Sinn-Feiners, 6; National Party, 5; and Independent, 1.

The general election for the present parliament presented several new features. For one thing the voting was done in one day.

Then this was the first time that women voted in Britain, and the first time that there were women candidates. Thanks to a redistribution there were far more parliamentary seats than there ever were before. Formerly there were only six hundred and seventy.

The present third Parliament of King George V was elected in December, 1918, meeting in its first session in February, 1919.

The general election returned 478 supporters of the Lloyd George Coalition Government, namely, 334 Unionists, 133 Liberals and 11 Labour Representatives; 229 Non-Coalition Members, including 63 Labour Representatives, 48 Unionists, 28 Liberals, 73 Sinn-Feiners, 7 Nationalists and 10 Independents.

The distribution by sections of the United Kingdom was as follows:—

The Parties' strength after the general election was as follows:—

ENGLAND	Coalition	401
	Non-Coalition	91
WALES	Coalition	21
	Non-Coalition	15
SCOTLAND	Coalition	56

In the preceding, only those are considered as Coalitionists who received the recognition of the Prime Minister and Mr. Bonar Law. Thus, the Irish Unionists are not included as among the Ministerialists, although, as in the case of many other Non-Coalition Members, they are in general agreement with the Government.

August 14, 1911, the House of Commons of the United Kingdom by a vote of 241 to 128 passed a resolution appropriating £252,000 for the payment of members' salaries for the then ensuing year. This action was taken pursuant to a resolution passed August 10, providing for an annual salary of £400 for each member of the House of Commons. This was a radical departure from the principle of gratuitous public service which hitherto prevailed in the Commons of the United Kingdom.

Lady Astor, the first woman elected a member of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, took her seat December 1, 1919.

The event of outstanding importance during 1921-22 was the question of a new constitution on a Dominion basis to Ireland.

THE DOMINION OF CANADA.

The territories which now constitute the Dominion of Canada came under the British flag at various times, some by settlement and others by conquest or cession. Nova Scotia (Acadia) was discovered by the Cabots, in the service of King Henry VII, in 1497. That part of Canada now forming the Province of Quebec was discovered by Jacques Cartier, in the service of King Francis I of France, in 1534. The Colony of Halifax was founded in 1749. By the treaty of Utrecht (1713) Acadia, and the Hudson Bay Territory (Hudson Bay was discovered by Henry Hudson in 1610) were acknowledged to be British Territory. The Hudson Bay Company's charter, conferring right of government over the territory now known as the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and the North-West Territories, was granted in 1670. The old French Colony of Canada was surrendered by the capitulation of Montreal, signed September 8, 1760, and along with Prince Edward Island, and part of the present Province of New Brunswick, formally ceded to Great Britain by France under the Treaty of Paris, signed Feb. 10, 1763.

Vancouver Island was acknowledged to be British by the Oregon Boundary Treaty of 1846, and British Columbia was occupied in 1858.

As originally constituted, the Dominion of Canada was composed of the provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. They were united under the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament (30 Victoria, Chapter III) passed in 1867, and commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1867," although its full official designation originally was:—"An Act for the Union of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and the government thereof, and for purposes connected therewith." This Act received the Royal assent March 29th, 1867, and came into effect by virtue of Royal Proclamation July 1st, 1867. This Act expressly provides that the Constitution of the Dominion shall be "similar in principle to that of the United Kingdom" (1st clause), so that the executive authority shall be vested in the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland, and carried on in her name by a Governor-General and Council "to aid and advise in the government of Canada, to be styled the Queen's Privy Council for Canada." (Clauses 9, 10 and 11). Provision was made in the Act for the admission of British Columbia, Prince Edward Island, the North-West Territories, and Newfoundland into the Dominion (Clause 146). Newfoundland alone has not availed itself of such provision. In 1869 the extensive region known under the various designations of "Rupert's Land," "the Hudson Bay Territory," and "the North-West Territory," was added to the Dominion by purchase from the Hudson Bay Company. The Province of Manitoba was set apart out of a portion of it (32-33 Victoria, Chap. 3), and admitted into the Confederation July 15, 1870.

July 20, 1871, the Province of British Columbia, and July 1, 1873, the province of Prince Edward Island, respectively, entered the confederation.

June 25, 1886, the Royal assent was given to "An Act respecting the representation in the Parliament of Canada of Territories which for the time being form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province," commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1886" (49-50 Victoria, Chapter XXXV).

This Act provides that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, make provisions for the representation in the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, or in either of them, of any Territories which, for the time being, form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province thereof.

The Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan were formed from the provisional districts of Alberta, Athabaska, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan (4-5 Edward VII, Chap. 3 and 42), and were admitted to the Union as Provinces on September 1st, 1905.

During the first session of the 12th Parliament a bill was passed extending the areas of Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec northward by adding to those provinces portions of the North-West Territory.

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA.

The present Canadian system of government, which was established under the British North America Act of 1867, is a Federal Union, the first of the kind in the British Empire. It comprises a general or central government controlling matters essential to the development, the permanency and the unity of the Dominion as a whole, and also a number of provincial governments having the control and management of certain clearly defined local matters naturally and conveniently falling within their jurisdiction. These several governments are administered in strict accordance with the principles of British parliamentary government.

The executive power of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, as also the chief command of the military and naval forces, is vested in the King, represented by the Governor-General, appointed by the Crown (the British Government) and advised by a Cabinet chosen from members of the King's Privy Council for Canada, and consisting of ministers holding departmental offices, besides, often, one or more ministers without portfolios. The Government holds office as long as it has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

It is not neccssary that all the members of the Cabinet be members of the Senate or the House of Commons as long as the Cabinet, as a whole, has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

According to the B.N.A. Act, 1867, Sec. 55, where a Bill passed by the Houses of Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of the mentioned Act and to Her Majesty's instruction, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.

He served in Soudan Expedition, 1884, including El Teb and Tamai (medal with clasp, Khedive's star); in South Africa, 1899-1902 (despatches, Queen's medal with six clasps, King's medal), and during the Great War, in both France and the Dardanelles. He was made M.V.O. 1902, C.B. (Mil.), 1906; K.C.M.G., 1915; K.C.B., 1916, and G.C.B., 1919. At the conclusion of the Great War he received the thanks of Parliament for his services and a grant of thirty thousand pounds, and was by Letters Patent, dated 7th October, 1919, created Baron Byng of Vimy and Thorpe-le-Soken, County Essex, to hold to him and the heirs male of his body. ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Up to May 7, 1901, it was provided by Royal Letters Patent that the "powers granted His Excellency may in the case of his death, incapacity or absence, be given to the Lieutenant-Governor for the time being of Canada, or in his absence to such person as Her Majesty might, by warrant, appoint to be Administrator, or in the absence of such Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator to the Senior Military Officer for the time being in command of Her Majesty's regular Forces in the Dominion."

Upon the date mentioned a dormant commission passed under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet appointing the Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, or in the case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence from Canada of the Chief Justice, the Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, to be Administrator of the Government of the Dominion in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor-General.

The Royal Letters Patent of June 15, 1905, which provided for the change in the designation of His Excellency's office from that of "Governor-General in and over the Dominion of Canada," to that of "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of Canada," contained the same provision as to the Administrator as the dormant Commission, and that instrument, being thus rendered superfluous, was withdrawn and cancelled.

The Administrator is vested with all the powers and authorities granted to the Governor-General by letters patent or otherwise.

THE SENATE OF CANADA.

According to the British North America Act, 1867, the Senate as originally constituted was to consist of 72 members; 24 for the Province of Ontario, 24 for Quebec and 24 for the Maritime Provinces (Nova Scotia and New Brunswick). Qualifications were laid down as follows:—Must be a British subject; must be thirty years of age; must be possessed of real property, free of all incumbrances, to the value of $4,000; must be a resident of the province for which he is appointed. Senators are appointed by the Governor-General in Council and, subject to certain conditions, hold their appointment for life. A Senator may by writing resign his seat. His place becomes vacant (1) if for two consecutive sessions of Parliament he fails to attend; (2) if he becomes a subject or citizen of a foreign power; (3) if he becomes a bankrupt or defaulter (4) if he is attainted of felony or convicted of felony or crime; (5) if he ceases to be qualified in respect of property. The Governor-General in Council appoints the Speaker of the Senate, the Clerk and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod. The debates and proceedings of the Senate are governed by Rules and Orders modelled to a considerable extent after those of the House of Lords and differing very considerably from those of the House of Commons. Thus honourable gentlemen, rising to speak, address themselves to the "Honourable Gentlemen," composing the House, and not to "Mr. Speaker," as in the House of Commons.

Each of the Senators from Quebec is appointed to represent one of 24 divisions corresponding with former electoral divisions of the old Province of Lower Canada. Senators for other provinces are not appointed for any designated divisions, but the practice of assuming distinctive territorial designations prevails. A popular practice of Senators who have formerly sat in the House of Commons is to adopt as their designations the titles of their former constituencies. Several are content to be designated as "from the city or town in which they reside." Senators must continue to reside in the province from which they are appointed.

The first increase in the membership of the Senate took place in 1871, when Manitoba and British Columbia, upon entering the Confederation, were awarded two and three seats respectively. In 1873 Prince Edward Island, upon entering Confederation, was given four members, the representation of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick being reduced by two senators each. In 1882 Manitoba was given an additional member and in 1892 another.

In 1888 the North-West Territories were given two senators. In 1904, in virtue of the Act 3 Edward VII, Chapter 42, the representation of the North-West Territories was increased to four. Upon creation of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan in 1905, each was allotted 4 seats in the Senate, or eight seats between them.

The Senate as constituted consisted of 87 members as follows:—Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; British Columbia, 3; Manitoba, 4; Saskatchewan, 4; Alberta, 4.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session XII Parliament) the government introduced a measure providing for the increase of representation in the Senate to 96. This measure provided that the detail of representation should be as follows:—Ontario by 24 senators; Quebec, by 24 senators; the Maritime Provinces and Prince Edward Island, by 24 senators, 10 thereof representing Nova Scotia, 10 thereof representing New Brunswick and 4 thereof representing Prince Edward Island; the western provinces by 24 senators, 6 thereof representing Manitoba, 6 thereof representing British Columbia, 6 thereof representing Saskatchewan and 6 Alberta.

This measure as amended by the Senate came into effect upon the dissolution of the 12th (last) parliament.

In accordance with 5th Edward VII, Chapter 43, an allowance was made to each member of the Senate and House of Commons, of $20 for each day's attendance if the session did not extend beyond thirty days, and if the session extended beyond that time an allowance of $2,500 was made. For every day on which a member did not attend a sitting of his House a deduction at the rate of $15 per day was made.

During the fourth session of the 13th Parliament of Canada (1920) there was passed an Act to amend the Salaries Act and the Senate and House of Commons Act, which provided for an increase in the sessional indemnities of Senators and Members of the House of Commons from $2,500 to $4,000. In view of the increased indemnity, certain restrictive provisions were imposed in the Bill, the chief of which read as follows: "A member shall not be entitled to the sessional allowance if he does not attend a sitting of the House of which he is a member on at least three-fourths of the days upon which such House sits; but the allowance for any less number of days shall be twenty-five dollars for each day's attendance."

It was provided in this legislation that the Prime Minister need not be burdened with a portfolio and that he receive a salary of $15,000, the other ministers to receive salaries of $10,000 each.

Provision was also made for the raising of the salaries of the Speakers of the Senate and House of Commons from $4,000 to $6,000 and the salary of the Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons from $2,000 to $4,000.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA.

The House of Commons of Canada is elected by the people for five years, unless sooner dissolved by the Governor-General. Members require no property qualifications, but they must be of the age of 21, and British subjects, not disqualified by law. The Speaker is chosen by the House at the opening sitting of the first session of each parliament.

The members are elected by constituencies and voting is by ballot.

The number of members of the House of Commons is regulated by the following clauses of the British North America Act, 1867:—

"51. On the completion of the Census in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-One, and of each subsequent decennial Census, the representation of the four Provinces shall be readjusted by such authority, in such a manner, and from such time as the Parliament of Canada from time to time provides, subject and according to the following Rules:—

"(1). Quebec shall have the fixed number of Sixty-five members.

"(2). There shall be assigned to each of the other Provinces such a number of members as will bear the same proportion to the number of its population (ascertained at such Census) as the number Sixty-five bears to the number of the population of Quebec (so ascertained).

"(3). In the computation of the number of members for a Province a fractional part not exceeding one-half of the whole number requisite for entitling the Province to a member shall be disregarded; but a fractional part exceeding one-half of that number shall be equivalent to the whole number.

"(4). On any such readjustment the number of members for a Province shall not be reduced unless the proportion which the number of the population of the Province bore to the number of the aggregate population of Canada at the then last preceding readjustment of the numbers of members for the Province is ascertained at the then latest Census to be diminished by one twentieth part or upwards.

"(5). Such readjustments shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament.

"52. The number of the members of the House of Commons may from time to time be increased by the Parliament of Canada, providing the proportionate representation of the Province prescribed by this Act is not thereby disturbed."

At Confederation (1887) the House of Commons consisted of 181 members of which Ontario returned 82; Quebec 65; Nova Scotia, 19; and New Brunswick, 15. During the fourth session of the 1st Parliament the representation was increased to 191, Manitoba (4 members) and British Columbia (6 members) having entered Confederation.

The representation in the 2nd Parliament (July 8, 1872, to Jan. 2, 1874), under the Redistribution Act of 1872, was 200 up to the last sessions, when there was an increase of 6 members owing to the admission of Prince Edward Island to Confederation. Ontario had 88 members; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6.

In the 3rd Parliament (Jan. 2, 1874, to August 17, 1878), and in the 4th Parliament (Aug. 17, 1878, to May 18, 1882) the representation remained as at the dissolution of the 2nd Parliament, viz:—Ontario, 88; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 6. Total 206.

The representation in the 5th Parliament (May 16, 1882, to Jan. 15, 1887) under the Representation Act of 1887, was increased to 211, the Ontario representation being increased from 88 to 92 and that of Manitoba from 4 to 5.

In the 6th Parliament (Jan. 15, 1887, to Feb. 3, 1891), the representation remained unchanged, except that in 1887 the North-West Territories were granted representation with 4 members, thus making a total representation of 215.

During the 7th Parliament (Feb. 3, 1891, to April 24, 1896) there was no change in the representation.

In the 8th Parliament (April 24, 1896, to Oct. 9, 1900), under the Representation Act of 1892-3, the representation was as follows:—Ontario, 92; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 20; New Brunswick, 14; Manitoba, 7; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 5; North-West Territories, 4. Total, 213.

During the 9th Parliament (Oct. 9, 1900, to Sept. 29, 1904), there was but one change in the representation, a seat being added for the Yukon Territory (Chap. 37, 1902). This made 214 members, distributed as follows:—Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 18; New Brunswick, 13; Manitoba, 10; North-West Territories, 10; British Columbia, 7; Prince Edward Island, 4; the Yukon Territory, 1.

The House remained so constituted until the dissolution of the 10th Parliament. September 17th. 1908.

During the first session of the Tenth Parliament of Canada (1905) provision was made for the creation of the new provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta out of part of the North-West Territories, and provision was made for the taking of a census of population in the two new provinces, as also in Manitoba, in the middle year of each decade commencing with 1906. The results of the first quinquennial census made necessary, according to the Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts, a readjustment of the representation of Saskatchewan and Alberta in the House of Commons, and at the session of 1906-07 an amendment was passed to the Representation Act (Chapter 5 of the Revised Statutes 1906) providing that the House of Commons shall consist of two hundred and twenty-one (221) members, as follows:—Ontario 86; Quebec, 65; Saskatchewan, 10 (a gain of 4); British Columbia, 7; Alberta, 7 (a gain of 3); Prince Edward Island, 4; Yukon Territory, 1.

By a special clause embodied in this Act, it only took effect upon the dissolution of the 10th Parliament.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session 12th Parlt.) a Redistribution Bill was passed, providing for an increase in the number of members of the House of Commons to 235, divided among the provinces as follows:—Ontario, 82; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 16; New Brunswick, 11; Manitoba, 15; British Columbia 13; Prince Edward Island, 4; Saskatchewan, 16; Alberta, 12; Yukon, 1; Total 235. The new Act came into effect with the dissolution of the Twelfth Parliament.

The functions, powers and prerogatives of the Canadian House of Commons approximate as closely as may be to those possessed by the Lower House of the Parliament of the United Kingdom. Bills for appropriating any part of the Public Revenue, or for imposing any Tax or Impost, must originate in the House of Commons. It is not lawful for the House of Commons to adopt or pass any Vote, Resolution, Address, or Bill for the Appropriation of any Part of the Public Revenue, or of any Tax or Impost, to any Purpose, that has not been first recommended to the House by Message of the Governor-General in the Session in which such Vote, Resolution, Address or Bill is proposed.

HOUSE OF COMMONS ELECTIONS.

Proclamation of Dissolution of the 13th Parliament, dated October 4th, 1921. Nomination November 22, 1921. Polling December 6th, 1921. Writs made returnable January 15, 1922.

The election for the 13th Parliament in 1917 was held under "The Dominion Elections Act" and the "Military Voter's Act 1917," and consequently under unprecedented conditions. Polling took place, not only in Canada, but Overseas, and not merely in British territory, but in allied countries as well. Each man serving in the Canadian Army and Navy was entitled to vote and so were his immediate female relations of age. The unusual period of four weeks intervened between nomination and election day, was attributable to the operation of the Military Voters' Act and the time required for polling overseas. At home, as usual, the voting was confined to one day, December 17, 1917, except in the Yukon, where voting took place Jan. 28, 1918, and Nelson, Man., where the election (acclamation) took place March 4th. Overseas it began within a week after nomination and continued up to the hour when the polls closed in Canada. Contrary to customary practice, for a Federal franchise operated in this election, provincial lists were not used. Returning officers selected enumerators to compile new Dominion lists and, for the first time in a Dominion election, these lists contained the names of women. Complete woman suffrage was not granted, but the wives, mothers, widows and sisters of soldiers were entitled to vote. Army nurses were also accorded votes.

Naturalized aliens of enemy nationality whose citizenship was secured since 1902 were debarred from the privilege of voting at this election.

While the laws governing the election were exceptional so was the political situation. Instead of the two historical political parties confronting one another on familiar lines, in this case a "Union" Government party including Liberal "Unionists" as well as Conservatives and Conservative "Unionists" faced an opposition consisting of anti-Unionist Liberals.

In the returns of the general election of 1917, (G) after the name signifies that the candidate was officially endorsed by the Government (Unionist) leader; (O) that the candidate was en dorsed by Sir Wilfred Laurier, leader of the Opposition: (Lab.)

that the candidate was endorsed by the Labour Party: and (S.D.) that the candidate was endorsed by the Social Democratic party. It will be noticed that some candidates ran without any formal party endorsation, as provided in the Act.

In the returns for all other elections the political affiliation of candidates is indicated as follows:—(C) for Conservative or "Liberal-Conservative", (Ind.) for Independent, (Lab.) for Labour, (L.) for Liberal, (Soc.) for Socialist.

The votes cast for each candidate at the general election of 1921 [14th (present) parliament], as per official declaration, are recorded below, together with a record of the majorities in each constituency at each previous general election and by-election since Confederation.

In 1887, when the old Northwest Territories were first given representation in the House of Commons, four electoral divisions were created:—

(1) Assiniboia East, adjoining Province of Manitoba; (2) Assiniboia West, next; (3) Alberta, extending to the boundary of British Columbia, and (4) Saskatchewan, in the north. Under the Act of 1903, the two Assiniboias and Saskatchewan were given six seats, namely: Assiniboia East, Assiniboia West, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan. These old divisions practically compose the present Province of Saskatchewan, which, according to the Act of 1906–07, returns 10 members to the House of Commons, the constituencies being: Assiniboia, Battleford, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Qu'Appelle, Regina, Saltcoats and Saskatoon.

The records of the extinct Federal electoral division of the present province of Saskatchewan were as follows:—

Owing to the operation of the Redistribution Act, the constituencies of Lisgar and Selkirk changed names after 1891; that is, the constituency called Lisgar up to and including 1891 has since been called Selkirk, and vice versa. So in the above table, the figures for the elections up to and including 1891 are for what to that date was known as the constituency of Selkirk, but which territorially is identical, or practically so, with the present constituency of Lisgar.

(1) The first elec. in Marquette after the admiss. of Manitoba into Confed was held Mar. 2, 1871. The return of the returning officer showed that each of the two candidates had received the same number of votes. The ret. officer had not, as now, the right to give his casting vote. In due course the matter came before the Hou. of C. and was referred to the Com. of Privileges and Elecs., who reported that the ret. officer should (under the old system of double returns) have declared both candidates elected. Under an order of the House (April 25), the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, attended and on motion of the Hon. Mr. Cameron, of Peel, a resolution was passed, instructing the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to amend the return so as to declare both candidates elected. This was done, and Dr. Lynch, who was present in Ottawa, forthwith subscribed to the oath and took his seat. Then Hon. Mr. Cameron drew attention to the rule which provided that a member must withdraw while the matter of his election was before the House, whereupon Dr. Lynch withdrew. May 13, Mr. McKay, having arrived in Ottawa, presented himself and took the oath and his seat. Under similar conditions as Dr. Lynch he withdrew. A delay of six weeks was allowed the Elec. Com. to enquire into the matter. Before the House finally disposed of the matter Parliament was dissolved. (See Journals of the House.)

(2) Mr. Cunningham died while the protest against his return was before the courts.

(1) Returns of all the by-elections since the general election will be found at the end of these returns.

Practically four distinct parties appealed to the electorate: (1) Conservatives (straight supporters of the existing Hearst Government); (2) Liberals; (3) United Farmers of Ontario, and (4) the Labour Party. The letters "C." "L," "U.F." and "Lab." in this table signify that the candidates ran under the banners of the Conservative, the Liberal, the United Farmers or the Labour parties respectively. Upon forming his government with the support of the United Farmer and Labour representatives and some "Independent" members Premier Drury expressed the wish that the Government party be known as the "People's Party."

THE QUEBEC LEGISLATURE.

In accordance with the B.N.A. Act, 1867 (clause 71 and following) the Legislature for the Province of Quebec consists of the Lieutenant-Governor and of two Houses, styled the Legislative Council of Quebec and the Legislative Assembly of Quebec.

The Legislative Councillors are "appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for life, unless the Legislature of Quebec otherwise provides." The qualifications of the Legislative Councillors are the same as for members of the Senate of Canada and the place of a Legislative Councillor becomes vacant in the cases, mutatis mutandis, in which the place of Senator becomes vacant.

The Legislative Assembly is composed of members elected by the various electoral divisions into which the province is divided.

The work and authority of the two Houses are divided as in the Houses of the Dominion Parliament.

NEW BRUNSWICK LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

At, and for many years after Confederation, New Brunswick had a Legis. Council as well as a Legis. Assembly. April 16, 1891, an Act (54 Vic., Chap. IX) was passed abolishing the Legis. Council and vesting all its powers in the Lieut.-Governor and Assembly, thereafter designated the Legislative Assembly. This Act came into force upon the dissolution of 1892. The "Legislatures" are now officially counted from that date only, the present being known as the "Eighth," although including the sessions prior to 1892, it is really the 15th since Confederation.

Elected by popular vote—48 members. Last g.e., October 9th, 1920. Sessional indemnity, $1,000 and travelling expenses; the Speaker $800 additional.

PROVINCE OF ALBERTA.

(Revised, April 12, 1922.)

With the Province of Saskatchewan formed from part of the Northwest Territories by Act of Dominion Parliament, 1905 (first session, 10th Parliament). The two provinces are divided by the meridian of 110, west from Greenwich. They lie between British Columbia on the west, and Manitoba and the Northwest Territories on the east, and between the International boundary at the 49th parallel on the south, and the 60th parallel on the north. From north to south each province extends 760 miles, or as long as from the mouth of the Detroit River to the mouth of the Saguenay in a straight line. The area of the two provinces is 504,190 square miles, which is as large as the united areas of Great Britain, France and Germany, as large as the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota and the two Dakotas combined, and more than twice as large as the six New England States, together with New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. The provisions of the B.N.A. Act, 1867, with its several amendments, apply to the new provinces. The public lands are retained by the Government of Canada, and in place of these, as a source of revenue, the provinces receive an annual sum based upon the population as from time to time ascertained by the quinquennial census.

Act creating Province of Alberta came into force Sept. 1, 1905.

Population: (Census of 1911) 374,295; Census of 1921, 524,582.

THE NORTHWEST TERRITORIES

Hudson Bay, discovered by Henry Hudson, the English sea captain, August 3, 1610, explored in 1612 and 1613 by Captain Button, who wintered at Port Nelson. Inauguration of trade in Northwest by Hudson Bay Co., 1668. Charter granted to H. B. Co. by King of England, 1670. Fort Prince of Wales (Churchill) began 1733.

July 31, 1868, The "Rupert's Land Act." passed by the Imperial Parliament providing for the acquisition by the Dominion Government of "Rupert's Land," or the Hudson Bay Territory.

May 11, 1870, £300,000 paid by the Dominion Government for the territorial rights of the Hudson Bay Company in Rupert's Land.

Manitoba and "The Northwest Territories" (Hudson Bay Territory) became part of the Dominion, July 15, 1870.

District of Keewatin, created 1876.

The districts of Alberta, Assiniboia, Athabasca and Saskatchewan formed from the southern part of the Northwest Territories, 1882.

In 1888 these districts were accorded local responsible government, and the old Northwest Council replaced by the Northwest Legislature, which existed up to August 31, 1905.

Districts of Mackenzie, Ungava and Franklin created 1895.

The district of Keewatin, which had formerly been under the administration of the Lieut.-Governor of Manitoba, was, by Order-in-Council on July 24, 1905, re-annexed to the Northwest Territories and made subject to the same government and laws as the Territories.

September 1, 1905, Alberta and Saskatchewan, comprising the more settled portions of the Northwest Territories, south of the 60th parallel, N. latitude, began their existence as separate provinces.

Legislation passed during the 1911-1912 (1st session, 12th Parlt.) session of the Dominion Parliament, provided for the division of the district of Keewatin between the provinces of Ontario and Manitoba. By this legislation the territory of Manitoba was extended northerly to the 60th parallel of latitude, which also forms the northern boundary of the provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. The eastern boundary of Manitoba was extended in a north-easterly direction to Hudson Bay. The remaining southern part of Keewatin was added to Ontario. By the same Act the whole of the district of Ungava was added to the Province of Quebec.

The islands in James Bay, Hudson Bay, Hudson Straits and other northern waters were not included in the territory added to the Provinve

The Northwest Territories, as at present existing, consequently include these islands, many of them of large area, and the vast unorganized districts of Franklin and Mackenzie. According to the evidence heard before a select committee of the Senate during the session of 1906-07, immense areas of the districts of Keewatin and Mackenzie offer exceptional inducements to capitalists, lumbermen, sportsmen, fishermen and prospectors.

Area of Northwest Territories: 773,072,400 acres of land, 21,950,950 acres of water; total 795,023,360 acres or 1,242,224 square miles.

Population according to census of 1911, 6,507; 1921, 7,988.

GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORIES.

The Government of the Northwest Territories was provided for at the time of the interruption of the existing territorial government by the creation of the Provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta. According to the Northwest Territories Act of 1905, which is chapter 62 of the Revised Statutes of 1906, as amended in 1907, the Governor-General appoints for the Territories a chief executive officer styled and known as the Commissioner of the Northwest Territories, who exercises the executive powers which were vested in the Lieutenant-Governor of the N.W. Territories in Council on Aug. 31, 1905, the date of the separation of the new provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan from the old Northwest Territories so far as these executive powers "are applicable to and capable of being exercised in relation to the Government of the Northwest Territories as at present constituted." There is a special provision that "The Commissioner shall administer the government of the Territories under instructions from time to time given him by the Governor-in-Council or the Minister of the Interior."

Seat of Government of N.W. Territories—Ottawa, Ont.

SUPREME COURT OF CANADA

The Supreme Court of Canada (as also the Exchequer Court) was constituted in 1785 under "The Supreme and Exchequer Court Act" (38 Vic., Chap. 11).

The Supreme Court has jurisdiction as a High Court of Appeal in both civil and criminal cases throughout the Dominion of Canada. It is also a Court of Appeal for controverted election cases, from the Exchequer Court, from the Board of Railway Commissioners as provided in the Railway Act and under the Winding-up Act. It also has jurisdiction in controversies between the provinces and the Dominion. The Governor-in-Council may refer to the Supreme Court for an opinion upon any matter deemed advisable in the public interest. From the decision of the Supreme Court an appeal lies to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council of Great Britain by special leave of the Judicial Committee in all cases except appeals which come to the Supreme Court from the Exchequer Court sitting as a Court of Admiralty. In the latter case alone there is an appeal as of right.

The Supreme Court sits in Ottawa, where the judges reside and where three sessions annually are held, beginning on the third Tuesday in February, the first Tuesday in May and the first Tuesday in October.

In 1896 Parliament amended the Supreme Court Act by repealing s. 4, and substituting therefor the following: "The Supreme Court shall consist of a chief justice, to be called the Chief Justice of Canada, and five puisne judges who shall be appointed by the Governor-in-Council by letters patent under the Great Seal." This section appears in this form in the Supreme Court Act, R.S.C., c. 139, s. 4.

Sections VII and VIII of the letters patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, dated June 15, 1905, constituting the office of Governor-General and Commander in Chief of the Dominion of Canada, read as follow:—

"VII. And we do hereby declare Our pleasure to be that, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence of Our said Governor-General out of Our said Dominion, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until Our further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in such person as may be appointed by Us under Our Sign Manual and Signet to be Our Lieutenant-Governor of Our said Dominion; or, if there shall be no such person or persons as may be appointed by Us under Our Sign Manual and Signet to administer the Government of the same; and in case there shall be no person or persons within Our said Dominions so appointed by Us, then in Our Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Our said Dominion; or, in case of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence out of Our said Dominion of Our said Chief Justice for the time being, then in the Senior Judge for the time being of Our said Supreme Court then residing in Our said Dominion and not being under incapacity.

"Provided always, that the said Senior Judge shall act in the administration of the Government only if and when Our said Chief Justice shall not be present within Our said Dominion and capable of administering the Government.

"Provided further that no such powers or authorities shall vest in such Lieutenant-Governor, or such other person or persons, until he or they shall have taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governor-General of Our said Dominion and in the manner provided by the Instructions accompanying these Our Letters Patent.

"VIII. And we do hereby require and command all Our Officers and Ministers, Civil and Military, and all other, the inhabitants of Our said Dominions, to be obedient, aiding and assisting unto Our said Governor-General; or, in the event of his death, incapacity or absence, to such person or persons as may from time to time, under the provisions of these Our Letters Patent, administer the Government of Our said Dominion."

It was notified in the London Gazette of May 21, 1913, that the King had been pleased to approve of the use and recognition throughout His Majesty's Dominions during tenure of office of the title of "Honourable" in the case of the Chief Justice of Canada, the Judges of the Supreme and Exchequer Courts of Canada and some others.

1 The right of the Administrator to be styled "His Excellency" was asserted by Sir H. Elzear Taschereau, formerly Chief Justice, while acting as Administrator in the interval between the departure of the Earl of Minto and the arrival of His Excellency Earl Grey, and he was informed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, in reply to an enquiry, that "the Administrator was rightly styled 'His Excellency.'"

See "Administrator of the Government."

The Canadian members are appointed by His Majesty, on the recommendation of the Canadian Government; the American members are appointed by the President. Under the Rules of Procedure of the Commission the United States Chairman presides at all meetings held in the United States, and the Canadian Chairman at all meetings held in Canada. The permanent offices of the Commission are at Washington and Ottawa, the former under the direction of the United States Secretary, and the latter under the direction of the Canadian Secretary.

Under Article III of the Treaty, no uses, obstructions and diversions, whether temporary or permanent, of boundary water on either side of the line dividing Canada from the United States, affecting the natural level or flow of boundary waters on the other side of the line, can be made by the authority of one of the High Contracting Parties except with the approval of the Commission.

Under Article IV, the construction of maintenance on their respective sides of the boundary of any remedial or protective works or any dams or other obstructions in water flowing from boundary waters or in waters at a lower level than the boundary in rivers flowing across the boundary, the effect of which is to raise the natural level of waters on the other side of the boundary, must also be approved by the Commission. In the exercise of the foregoing functions, the Commission is authorized, under Article XII of the Treaty, to examine witnesses, to hear the parties, and to render a decision which is final.

By Article IX, any other questions or matters of difference raised between the High Contracting Parties involving the rights, obligations or interests of either in relation to the other, or to the inhabitants of the other along the common frontier, may be referred for examination and report to the Commission whenever either the Government of the United States or the Government of the Dominion of Canada shall request that such question or matters of difference be so referred.

In virtue of Article X, any questions or matters of difference raised between the High Contracting Parties involving the rights, obligations, or interests of the United States or of the Dominion of Canada either in relation to each other or to their respective inhabitants may be referred for decision to the Commission by the consent of the two parties. In these cases the Commission is authorized to examine into and report upon the facts and circumstances of the particular questions and matters referred, and the majority has power to render a decision or finding upon the questions or matters submitted. In case the Commission is equally divided or otherwise unable to render a decision or finding, the questions or matters are to be refereed for decision by the High Contracting Parties to an umpire chosen in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Hague Convention for the pacific settlement of international disputes, dated October 18, 1907. TABLE OF PRECEDENCE FOR CANADA.

The official Table of Precedence is established and subject to regulations by the Home Government, acting through the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies. The first important amendment to the table was announced in despatches from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies bearing date Nov. 3, 1879, which were published in the Statutes of Canada of 1880 (43 Victoria, p. XXII). The last amendment was announced in a despatch dated Downing Street, Dec. 29, 1893, and published in the Canada Gazette, Jan. 20, 1894. This last amendment assigned, on the recommendation of the Dominion Government, precedence to the Controllers of Customs and Inland Revenue and the Lieutenant-Governors of the then newly admitted provinces and the Northwest Territories.

During the administration of Sir Mackenzie Bowell some suggestions for a further revision of the Table of Precedence were made to the Colonial Office, but there was a change of Government before the matter reached a final issue.

The Table of Precedence is very much out of date and inadequate.

It will be observed that no precedence has yet been assigned to the Lieutenant-Governors of Alberta and Saskatchewan, to the Commissioners of the Yukon and the Northwest Territories,[1] to the Director of the Naval Service of Canada, or to the chief Officers of the Militia who divide the functions of the former General Officer Commanding. The positions of Controller of Customs and Controller of Inland Revenue have ceased to exist. The Consular representatives of foreign powers in Canada and recognized heads of other than the episcopal churches have no places in the table of precedence, but are recognized, nevertheless, in actual practice. They are regularly invited to the official Parliamentary functions by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, who is charged with the arrangements for such events, and they have for several years been accorded defined places of entry at the Vice-regal drawing rooms. Upon the occasions of the first Drawing Room held by Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, November, 1911, the Counsuls General were specially received by Their Royal Highnesses before they proceeded to the reception chamber, and the precedent thus set has since been followed.

(1) At the Vice-regal Drawing Room at Ottawa, November 13, 1914, the Commissioner of the Yukon was presented immediately after the puisne judges of the Supreme Court of Canada.

Official rank and position, although conferring special official precedence on the holder of the office, does not, any more in Canada than in the Mother Country, do so upon the holder's wife and children. Thus the wives and children of Privy Councillors, Senators, Judges, members of Parliament, and officers of state, as such, have no special precedence, except such as is accorded to them (and it is always done) as a compliment. Widows of Privy Councillors, Senators, Judges, or public officials, have no claims to complimentary precedence as such, any claim they might have had in that respect lapsing with the demise of their husbands.

Section 46 of the Civil Service Act, 1908, provided that nothing in the Act should curtail the privileges theretofore enjoyed by officers of the Senate or of the House of Commons with respect to rank and precedence.

Knightly titles do not entitle the holders to any recognition under the Official Table of Precedence for Canada.

The table of precedence is as follows:—

1. The Governor-General or Officers Administering the Government.
2. The Senior Officer Commanding His Majesty's Troops within the Dominion, if of the rank of a General, and the Officer Commanding His Majesty's Naval Forces on the B.N.A. Station, if of the rank of an Admiral. Their own relative rank to be determined by the King's Regulations on the subject.
3. The Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario.
4. The Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.
5. The Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia.
6. The Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick.

7. The Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba.
8. The Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia.
9. The Lieutenant-Governor of Prince Edward Island.
10. The Lieutenant-Governor of the North-West Territories.
11. Archbishops and Bishops, according to seniority.[1]
12. Members of the Cabinet, according to seniority.
13. Speaker of the Senate.
14. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada. See pages 19 and 531.[2]
15. The Chief Judges of the Courts of Law and Equity, according to seniority.
16. Members of the Privy Council not of the Cabinet.
17. The Solicitor-General of Canada.
18. The Controller of Customs.
19. The Controller of Inland Revenue.
20. General Officers of His Majesty's Army serving in the Dominion, and Officers of the rank of Admiral in the Royal Navy serving on the B.N.A. Station, not being in the chief command. The relative rank of such officers to be determined by the King's Regulations.

(1) The following communication, addressed to His Excellency Earl Grey, is interesting under this head:

DOWNING STREET,
February 17, 1911.

MY LORD,—I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's Despatch No. 3 of the 6th January, as to the interpretation of the phrase "Archbishops and Bishops according to seniority" as used in the Official Table of Precedence for Canada.

I am advised, as was the Marquess of Ripon in 1894, that the phrase should be interpreted as signifying that Archbishops, as such, should take precedence of Bishops as such; that Archbishops should rank inter se according to date of appointment to the office of Archbishops, and that Bishops should rank inter se according to date of consecration.

I have the honour to be,
My Lord,
Your Lordship's most obedient,
humble servant,
L. HARCOURT.

Governor-General
His Excellency
The Right Honourable
Earl Grey, G.C.M.G. G.C.V.O.,
&c., &c., &c.

(2) In 1903 Lord Minto assigned the precedence for vice-regal functions, the case not being specially provided for, of the Right Hon. Sir Henry Strong is an Imperial Privy Councillor, before Sir Elzear Tachereau, then Chief Justice of Canada. His Excellency Earl Grey confirmed that ruling, and Imperial Privy Councillors, as such, come, at Government House, immediately after the Speaker of the Senate.

February, 1921, the question as to the position of Imperial Privy Councillors was referred to His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire who advised that Imperial Privy Councillors should come after the Chief Justice of Canada, as Sir Louis Davies, then Chief Justice was an Imperial Privy Councillor. At the time of the ruling in connection with Sir Henry Strong, Sir Elzear Tachereau was not an Imperial Privy Councillor.

21. The Chief Officer commanding His Majesty's troops in the Dominion, if of the rank of Colonel or inferior rank, and the Officer commanding His Majesty's Naval Forces on the B.N.A. Station, if of equivalent rank; their relative rank to be ascertained by the King's Regulations.
22. Members of the Senate.
23. Speaker of the House of Commons.
24. Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, according to seniority.
25. Judge of the Exchequer Court of Canada.
26. Puisne Judges of the Courts of Law and Equity, according to seniority.
27. Members of the House of Commons.
28. Members of the Executive Councils (Provincial) within the province.
29. Speaker of the Legislative Council within his province.
30. Members of the Legislative Council, within their province.
31. Speaker of the Legislative Assembly within his province.
32. Members of the Legislative Assembly within their province.
33. Retired Judges of whatever Courts to take precedence next after the present Judges of their respective Courts.[1]

OFFICIAL RULES RE SPELLING.

The spelling in official documents in all branches of the public service of the Dominion of Canada is regulated by a minute of the Privy Council signed by the late Rt. Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, dated May 30, 1890, and reading as follows:

"The undersigned, to whom was referred a communication from Doctor Hurlbert addressed to the Secretary on the subject of the spelling of certain English words, and also a letter from the Queen's printer in reference thereto, has the honour to report:—

"That, in his opinion, the only question with respect to the spelling of such words as "honour," favour" "labour," "honourable," and the like is, what is the mode now accepted by the best authorities in England. It appears to him to be obvious that the same system should obtain in all portions of the British Empire.

On a reference to the best dictionaries and encyclopædia now in use in England, it will be seen that these words are spelt with the "u," and that such forms as "labor," "favor," "honor," "honorable," etc., are apparently confined to the United States, with the exception of some few instances where they have been adopted in Canada.

In consequence of this reference, the undersigned has taken occasion to inquire into the mode of spelling these words in official and Legislative use in England, and he has ascertained that the "u" is in all such cases retained.

The undersigned therefore recommends the issue of instructions to the effect that in all official documents, in the Canada Gazette, and in the Dominion Statutes, the English practice be uniformly followed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A handbook of rules authorized for use at the Government Printing Bureau practically regulates (under the above minute of Council) the systems of spelling, contractions, capitalization, punctuation, etc., in Government publications.

According to this book the "Imperial Dictionary" is the standard to be followed in all cases of orthography. When there is a choice, preference is to be given to the spelling under which the definition is found.

Foreign words, such as " ad valorem," "aide-de-camp," which have become anglicized by constant use, incorporated into English sentences, should not be italics.

Capital letters are to be avoided as much as possible, but to be used in the following cases:

(1) All proper names, gentile nouns and adjectives derived therefrom, and the names of religions begin with capitals.

(2) Leading substantives in the titles of books and publications must be capitalized.

(3) The first word of every direct quotation, example, precept or question, should begin with a capital letter, and be preceded by a punctuation mark, preferably by a comma. Quotations introduced indirectly as by conjunction that, or examples consisting of more words or phrases, take a small letter.

(4) The word Department, Titles of Honour, etc., etc., are capitalized as proper names when preceded or succeeded by name of Department, as Department of Public Printing and Stationery, His Majesty the King, Minister of Public Works.

(5) Names of streets, roads, etc., to be two words, with initial capitals, as Sparks Street, Cartier Square.

(6) Act, when referring to Act of Parliament, is capitalized.

SPELLING IN ONTARIO SCHOOLS

The standard of English spelling taught in the schools of Ontario is briefly but amply explained by the following copy of an Order-in-Council, approved by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, the 14th day of January, A.D., 1900:

"Upon the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Education, the Committee of Council advise that in order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity in spelling and pronunciation in our schools, the British system, as set forth in the Imperial Dictionary, be that adopted for the text books to be used in the schools of the Province of Ontario.

"Certified.

"(Signed) J. LONSDALE CAPREOL, Clerk, Executive Council."

THE GEOGRAPHIC BOARD

Questions concerning geographic names in Canada are decided by the Geographic Board of Canada, created by Order-in-Council dated Dec. 18, 1897, and reading as follows:

"His Excellency, by and with the advice of the Queen's Privy Council of Canada, is pleased to create a 'Geographic Board,' to consist of one member for each of the Departments of the Geological Surveys, Railways and Canals, Post Office, and Marine and Fisheries, such member being appointed by the Minister of the Department; of the Surveyor-General of the Dominion Lands, of such other members as may from time to time be appointed by Order-in-Council, and an officer of the Department of the Interior, designated by the Minister of the Interior, who shall act as Secretary, of the Board, and to authorize the Board to elect its chairman and to make such rules and regulations for the transaction of its business as may be requisite.

"His Excellency is further pleased to order and direct that all questions concerning geographic names in the Dominion which arise in the departments of the public service shall be referred to the Board, and that all departments shall accept and use in their publications the names and orthography adopted by the Board."

This Order-in-Council was amended by another of date Dec. 14, 1899, which provided:

"That the Order-in-Council constituting the Board be amended by giving to the Government of the North-West Territories and to each Province the right to nominate one of their officials as a member of the Board, who shall advise the Board with reference to names in his Province, provided that the several Governments undertake to be guided by the decisions of the Board."

Later, Provincial representatives were appointed, the several Provincial Governments undertaking to be guided by the decisions of the Board.

RULES OF NOMENCLATURE

The following general rules of nomenclature have been laid down by the Geographic Boards.

1. When the priority of a name has been established by publication, particularly when such publication has occurred in any standard or authoritative work or works, that name should, if possible, be retained.

2. When names have been changed or corrupted, if not too firmly established by local usage, or otherwise, the original forms should be restored.

3. In cases where what was evidently originally the same word appears with various spellings sanctioned by local usage or otherwise, these various spellings when applied to different features should be regarded as in effect different names, and, as a rule, it is inadvisable to attempt to produce uniformity.

4. As a rule the first published name should be retained; but where a choice is offered between two or more names for the same place or locality, all sanctioned by local usage, that which is most appropriate and euphonious should be adopted.

5. The possessive form should be avoided wherever it can be done without destroying the euphony of the name or changing its descriptive application. Where the possessive form is retained the apostrophe should be dropped.

6. It is desirable to avoid the use of hyphens to connect parts of Indian names.

7. Names consisting of more than one word may be connected by hyphens or combined in one word, as may be advisable.

8. It is desired to avoid the use of the words city and town as parts of names.

9. The form "canyon may be used instead of cañon."

10. The term "brook" is considered preferable to "creek" for designating small streams, and will be adopted in cases where the latter has not become too firmly fixed.

11. The Board suggests that the initial letter of generic or descriptive parts of geographic names, when used in reports or other documents, should not be capitals.

12. The use of alternative names should be discontinued where possible or not convenient.

13. Geographical names in foreign countries should be rendered in the form adopted by that country, except where there are English equivalents already fixed by usage.

14. French names in Canada are to be spelt according to the rules of the French language.

15. The spelling of native geographical names should represent approximately the true sound of the words as pronounced in the native tongue.

16. The Board adopts the rules of the Royal Geographical Society for the orthography of geographical names, of which the broad features are as follows:

(a) The vowels are to be pronounced as in Italian and the consonants as in French.

(b) Every letter is pronounced, and no redundant letters are introduced. When two vowels come together each one is sounded, though the result when spoken quickly, is sometimes scarcely to be distinguished from a single sound, as in ai, au, ei.

(c) One accent is used, the acute, to denote the syllable on which stress is laid. This is very important, as the sounds on many names are entirely altered by the misplacement of this "stress."

NEW COAT OF ARMS FOR THE DOMINION

The London Gazette, November 23, 1921, contained a Royal proclamation, acceding to the request of "the Governor-General in Council of our Dominion of Canada," for a new coat of arms for the Dominion, described by the proclamation in heraldic terms as follows:

"We hereby appoint and declare that the arms or ensigns armorial of the Dominion of Canada shall be tierced in fese, the first and second divisions containing the quarterly coat following, namely, 1st gules, three lions passant guardant in pale or; 2nd or, a lion rampant within a double tressure flory counterflory gules; 3rd, azure, a harp or, stringed argent; 4th, azure, three fleur-de-lis or; and the third division argent, three maple leaves conjoined on one stem proper.

"And upon a royal helmet mantled, argent, doubled gules, the crest, that is to say, on a wreath of the colours argent and gules, a lion passant guardant or, imperially crowned proper and holding in the dexter paw a maple leaf gules.

"And for supporters on the dexter, a lion rampant or, holding a lance argent, point or; flying therefrom to the dexter, the Union flag; and on the sinister, an unicorn argent armed, crined and unguled, or gorged with a coronet composed of crosses patees and fleur-de-lis, a chain affixed thereto, reflexed of the last, and holding axe-like lance; flying therefrom to the sinister a banner azure charged with fleurs-de-lis or,

"The whole ensigned with the Imperial crown proper and below the shield upon a wreath composed of roses, thistles, shamrocks and lilies, a scroll azure inscribed with the motto: 'A mari usque ad mare'."

Dr. Violette of St. Leonards, Liberal, was elected by acclamation June 3, 1922 to fill the vacancy in the representation of Madawaska County in the New Brunswick Legislature.

June 10, 1922, in a by-election held in St. John county to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, who afterwards was elected to the House of Commons, A. F. Bentley, the Liberal Government candidate, was elected. Mr. Bentley received 2,051 votes to the 1,780 polled by Dr. J. H. Barton, Opposition candidate. These figures are unofficial. Mr. Bentley is a former member of the Legislature, having been elected in 1908, but he had been defeated in three subsequent elections.

June 17, 1922, at a by-election in King's County, James D. McKenna, Liberal, was elected to fill the vacancy in the N. B. legislature caused by the resignation of G. B. Jones, M.P. He received a majority of 457 over the Opposition candidate, A. J. Brooks, of Sussex. The count (unofficial) was: McKenna, 4,256; Brooks, 3799.

Mr. McKenna is the mayor of Sussex and the editor and publisher of the King's County Record and the Maritime Farmer. He has taken a leading part in the promotion of co-operative buying of fertilizers and other farm supplies.

STANDING OF PARTIES IN N. B. LEGISLATURE

The victory for the Liberal Government in the June by-elections in King's and St. John, both of which seats previously had been held by the Opposition, gives the Government a clear majority in the Legislature. Before the resignations of Hon. J. B. M. Baxter and George B. Jones, to become candidates for the House of Commons, the provincial Government had as duly elected supporters, 24 members, just one-half of the total. The Conservative opposition had 13 members, and the United Farmers 7. The new line-up will be: Government, 26; Independent, 4; Opposition, 11, and Farmers, 7.

NORRIS MINISTRY (MANITOBA.)

June 6, 1922, Robert Jacob of Winnipeg, and John Williams, of Arthur, took oath of office as Attorney-General and Minister of Agriculture, respectively in the Manitoba Government, headed by Hon. T. C. Norris. Mr. Jacob, a well-known Winnipeg lawyer, and former member of the Legislature, succeeded Hon. T. H. Johnson, and Mr. Williams, at the time member for Arthur Constituency, took the place vacated by Hon. George H. Malcolm. Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Malcolm announced that for the present they are retiring from public life. A vacancy created by the resignation of Hon. J. W. Armstrong, Provincial Secretary, had not been filled at the date mentioned.

MANITOBA LEGISLATURE

The 16th Legislature of Manitoba was dissolved June 24th, the election to be held on Tuesday, July 18, in all constituencies except the Pas.

Nominations were held on July 8, the interval between nomination and polling day having been extended to 10 days by a bill put through at the last session of the Legislature. There were no acclamations, and 151 candidates, 146 men and 5 women, were placed in nomination.

ALBERTA BY-ELECTIONS.

EDMONTON, July 11.—Returns from the by-elections in Whiteford and Ribstone yesterday as compiled up to noon to-day show that M. Chornohus, U.F.A., defeated A.S. Shandro, Liberal, in Whiteford, by a majority of 1,253, with two small polls to hear from, and G. Farquharson, U. F. A., is leading McKenna, Independent, by four to one in Ribstone with half the polls heard from. This makes the standing in the Provincial House: Farmers 40; Liberals 13; Labor 4; Independents, 3; Conservatives, 1. (Press Despatch).

MANITOBA GENERAL ELECTIONS.

THE CANADIAN PARLIAMENTARY GUIDE

Private orders for copies of this publication and enquiries respecting space in the advertising columns addressed "The Canadian Parliamentary Guide, P. O. Box 513, Ottawa" will receive prompt attention.

The "edition" of each year's issue beyond the supply for the Dominion Government and the various Provincial ones is limited, and the amount of space available for advertising is necessarily restricted.

The Parliamentary Guide is supplied to Senators, Members of the House of Commons, the Press Gallery and the higher Officials of the Public Service by the Dominion Government; and the Provincial Governments likewise distribute copies among the members of the various legislatures. Copies of the book are sent by the Government to every parliamentary library in the world. The banks, transportation companies, newspapers, and leading financial, industrial and construction companies are among the regular subscribers.

All applications to Parliament for Private Bills, of any nature whatsoever, shall be advertised by a Notice published in the Canada Gazette. Such notice shall clearly and distinctly state the nature and objects of the application, and shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicants, with the address of the party signing the same; and, when the application is for an Act of Incorporation, the name of the proposed company shall be stated in the Notice.

In case where exclusive powers are asked, in addition to the Notice in the Canada Gazette aforesaid, a similar notice shall also be published in some leading newspaper in the principal city, town or village, in each county or district and in each province or territory which may be affected by the passage of such Private Bills, according to the nature of the undertakings contemplated thereby.

Moose Heads

of exceptional size have been secured in the Province of Quebec

Several of them with antlers having a spread of five to six feet. The bull moose which attacked Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was killed by him within fifty miles of the City of Quebec.

Mrs. H. G. Campbell, of New York, has a record of a black bear and a large bull moose at Lake Kiskisink.

The big bull moose of ex-Mayor Carter Harrison, of Chicago, was killed in Northern Quebec.

Caribou and Deer

The Best Trout Fishing

in the world is in the Province of Quebec, and so are the best guides both for fishing and hunting. Read Henry van Dyke's description of some of them in "Little Rivers."

Would you like to own

for your family, by a forest-clad stream or mountain-surrounded lake?

You can build one of your own, by leasing a fishing and hunting territory from the Government of the Province, whether a resident of it or not, or by joining one of the many fish and game clubs.

Write for all particulars concerning fishing and hunting rights, fish and game laws, etc., to suggest that if you have flowers to send to a friend, don't wait until they are dead, distribute them while you can enjoy the comfort and their appreciation of this gift, and the sentiment associated with a gift that at all times spreads a ray of sunshine and pleasure, and helps to cheer up your friend while passing through. If you want first class Hotel Accommodation, where the Management pay particular attention to the wants of Ladies and Children travelling without male escort, patronize or

THE WALKER HOUSE THE HOTEL CARLS-RITE

"The House of Plenty" "The House of Comfort"

If you want money go to WORK and save all you can, but when you get rich don't kick because money didn't make you happy. Money never made any one happy. Giving it away or spending it to advantage will make you happy. Being kind and generous with a pleasant smile or a kind word for ALL will bring the BIGGEST RETURNS. This is no theory —it is absolutely true.

If you want a first class meal in the most unique Cafeteria on the Continent of America, Patronize which is in close proximity to the Union Station and steamboat wharves. It is open day and night.

While visiting Toronto don't fail to visit

THE WALKER HOUSE AQUARIUM

where there is the greatest display of fancy Gold Fish on the Continent of America. Here they are—the fancy, finny fellows—flashing around in their native element like a million Porcupine Nuggets endowed with life. Their shiny sides shimmer eternally as they shimmy in the sunshine. Don't ask us what they're thinking about or if they ever sleep. They haven't confided in us to that extent. But we've never seen 'em sleep yet. In this respect they are symbolic of where the staff is wide awake all the time with good service for every guest of "YE HOUSE OF PLENTY" and "YE HOUSE OF COMFORT."

Our Tropical Fish are the only specimens of this class of fish in the Dominion of Canada. They are worthy of a visit to this department. Our Mr. Palmer will be pleased to explain the habits and peculiarities of this very rare class of fish. We have specimens of the Paradise Fish. This tropical fish builds a nest to rear its young. We also have specimens of the Mouth Breeders. These Tropical Fish do not spawn in the same manner as our native fish; they bring forth their own kind alive.
